

42 CFR Part 2 - Confidentiality Statement

Federal law and regulations do not protect any information about a crime committed by a client, either at the program or against any person who works for the program, or about any threat to commit such a crime. Federal law regulations do not protect any information about suspected child abuse or neglect from being reported under state law to appropriate state or local authorities. (See 42 USC 290 DD-3 AND 42 USC 290 EE-3 for Federal Laws and 42 CFR Part 2 for Federal Regulations.) This information has been disclosed to you from records protected by Federal Confidentiality rules. The Federal rules prohibit you from making any further disclosure of this information unless further disclosure is expressly permitted by the written consent of the person to whom it pertains or as otherwise permitted by 42 CFR, Part 2. A general authorization for the release of medical or other information is NOT sufficient for this purpose. The Federal rules restrict any use of the information to criminally investigate or prosecute any alcohol or drug abuse client. (These conditions apply to every page disclosed and a copy of this authorization will accompany every disclosure.)
